

Orientation to The Learning Manager (TLM) for Blended Students

To log in to TLM from the NSCC web site:

1. Open your browser and go to the NSCC web site (<http://nsc.ca>) and click the link to Online Study.

2. Click on the link to take you to the Online Learning Web site.

After you reach the Online Learning Web Site

1. Click the “Login” button near the top left side of the page.
2. Click “In-Class (Blended)” to change the main window and allow you to select the proper School’s server for blended learning.

3. Click on the desired School to take you to TLM's Login page. This is where you will access your blended course.

In-Class or Blended Login information:

For students who are taking in-class courses which are supported by online resources (also know as Blended or Hybrid Courses), please click on the link below which represents the Academic School for which your course is associated.

If you are unsure which School to choose, please consult the Instructor for that course for more information.

- School of Access
- School of Applied Arts and New Media
- School of Business
- School of Health and Human Services
- School of Trades and Technology

Note:

Your Instructor will supply you with the login information you will need to successfully log in to TLM for the first time. You should change your password upon your first login.